

2023 ANNUAL MEETING

COMMITMENT TO PATIENTS, COMMITMENT TO LIFE

A Psychiatrist's Duty to Safeguard and Improve their Patients' Lives.

Saturday, October 7

Le Meridian Chicago - Oakbrook Center

2100 Spring Rd, Oak Brook, IL 60523

ABOUT:

Psychiatrists have a duty to safeguard and improve their patients' lives. Fulfilling this duty can entail many challenges, like working within a well-intentioned but flawed, mental health system while still trying to safeguard their own well-being in order to provide the highest quality of care.

Educational sessions will cover the latest on suicide prediction and prevention, the mental health court system in IL, and physician well-being and burnout. Other highlights include IPS' first poster session, a presentation of the inaugural winner of the Carl Bell award, and our annual awards dinner! Join us to explore what it means to have a commitment to our patients and to life.

What to Expect:

Poster Session

IPS will have its first-ever Poster Session where IPS members can submit their work for cash prizes.

Educational Sessions

Participate in 3 hours of thought provoking educational sessions provided by experts.

Network with Colleagues

Join your colleagues for networking activities throughout the entire day.

Awards Dinner

Honor your colleagues at the IPS Awards Dinner and enjoy a special keynote speaker.
